RAN INTO A RAVINE.

Wreck of a Santa Fe Train-An Arch Weakened by Floods. Curcago, May 5 .- Meager details have been eccived by the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad officials of a horrible wreck at Medill, Mo. The Chicago limited express, direct from the coast and San Francisco, was thrown through a bridge near that point at 8 o'clock this morning. So far as known all the cars of the magnificent train, loaded as they were with transcontinental passengers castward bound, were buried in the waters of a flooded ravine. It is aircady known that many were crushed and drowned and more injured. The best information so far obtained is that seven persons were killed outright and thirteen in-

Medili is a small town about twenty-five miles beyond the Mississippi. Within a few miles of the place is a deep ravine, usually dry. It is spanned by a fifty-foot arch, which it is supposed the heavy rain of the past few days weakened and finally displaced. The wrecked train is due in this city this evening. Being an overland and limited train it is usually well filled with the best class of passengers, a score of whom, it is train it is usually well filled with the best class of passengers, a score of whom, it is believed, have been drowned beneath the waters of the flooded run. All the Santa Fe wires are down and the railway officials are anxiously endeavoring to discover the full extent of the accident. Up to noon they had been able to secure only the most meager details by way of Kansas City and Omsha. The list of dead was stated to be seven, with thirteen injured.

teen injured. Third Vice President Springer said later that the accident was caused by a water spout fill-ing the ravine and carrying away the bridge. The train plunged directly into the water from the broken rails and the cars must have piled themselves one on the other, as there usually seven conches in the train.
